Dr. John Lynch

John Lynch is the new Director of Bands and Professor of Music at the University of Georgia where he will guide all aspects of the band and graduate wind conducting programs. Previous positions include Director of Bands at the University of Kansas, Associate Director of Bands at Northwestern University and Director of Instrumental Music at Emory University. Dr. Lynch has also held positions as Music Director of the Northshore Concert Band and the Atlanta Youth Wind Symphony, and he is the founder of the KU/Kansas City Youth Wind Symphony and the Orange County Music Educators Wind Ensemble. He has ten years of public high school teaching experience in New York State where he was the national recipient of the Stanbury award for outstanding teaching and conducting and the William Revelli Award.

John Lynch has performed throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and Asia, and toured China with the KU Wind Ensemble as a guest of the Chinese government. His first professional recording “Redline Tango” was awarded a contract with the Naxos recording label. An advocate for new music, he has commissioned and recorded numerous new works for winds and has received grants to research contemporary wind band and chamber music in Scandinavia, Spain and Portugal. Dr. Lynch is an active clinician and a published composer through C. Alan Music. His performances have been broadcast throughout the nation on Chicago’s WFMT, Peachstate Public Radio and on public radio in Kansas, Connecticut, Virginia, Texas, Colorado, Wisconsin and Ohio.

Awards include a Northwestern Searle Fellow for Teaching Excellence, membership in the Emory Scholars Committee, finalist for the Hungarian Radio Conducting Competition, participation in the Symphonic Conducting Workshop in Slovakia and a recent residency at the Lithuanian Music Academy. Performances include the MENC National Convention, Kansas Music Educators Association Convention, Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic, Le Festival des Anches d’Azur in France, and honor bands in Seoul, Hong Kong and Singapore. He has been invited to conduct the all-state bands of Texas (’08), New York (’08), Oklahoma, Louisiana and Indiana. John Lynch holds degrees from Indiana University, the Eastman School of Music and the Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. Professional affiliations include the College Band Directors National Association, the World Association of Symphonic Bands and Ensembles, the Music Educators National Convention, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Phi Beta Mu. He holds honorary memberships in Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma. He was elected president of the Big XII Band Directors Association and vice president of the College Band Directors National Association Southwest Division.

Samuel R. Hazo

Samuel R. Hazo resides in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with his wife and three children. In 2003, Mr. Hazo became the first composer in history to be awarded the winner of both composition contests sponsored by the National Band Association. (William D. Revelli in 2003 and Merrill Jones in 2001) He is a full member of ASCAP and has been honored with the ASCAP-Plus Award. Mr. Hazo has composed for the professional, university and public school levels in addition to writing original scores for television, radio and the stage. His original symphonic compositions include performances with actors Brooke Shields, James Earl Jones, David Conrad and Richard Kiley. He has also written symphonic arrangements for three-time Grammy Award winning singer/songwriter Lucinda Williams. Mr. Hazo's compositions have been performed and recorded world-wide, including performances by the Tokyo Kosei Wind Orchestra, the Birmingham Symphonic Winds (UK) and the Klavier Wind Project's recordings with Eugene Migliaro Corporon. His works have been premiered at the Music Educators' National Conference (State & National), Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic, National Band Association/Texas Bandmaster's Convention, College Band Directors' National Association Convention, WASBE and also aired in full-length programs on National Public Radio. Premiering performance ensembles include a variety of professional, university, all-state and honors ensembles. His top-selling commissions include pieces ordered by the Wenger Corporation, National Honor Band of America and the Midwest Clinic Board of Directors. Mr. Hazo's titles have consistently appeared in the GIA series "Teaching Music Through Performance in Band." He is also a contributing author to the 3rd volume of Mark Camphouse's and GIA's "Composers on Composing for Band" and Meredith Publications' "The Music Director's Cookbook." Among his international appearances, Mr. Hazo served as composer-in-residence at Craig Kirchoff's University of Minnesota's 2003 conducting symposium.

Samuel R. Hazo has been a music teacher at every educational grade level from kindergarten through college, including tenure as a high school and university director. Mr. Hazo was twice named "Teacher of Distinction" by the Teachers' Excellence Foundation. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Duquesne University where he served on the Board of Governors and was awarded as Duquesne's Outstanding Graduate in Music Education. Mr. Hazo serves as a guest conductor and is a clinician for Hal Leonard Corporation. He is also sponsored by Sibelius Music Software. His original compositions and arrangements are published by Hal Leonard, Boosey & Hawkes, FJH Music and Wingert-Jones Publications. Recordings of Mr. Hazo's compositions appear on Klavier Records and Mark Records.

Outstanding Bandmaster
Jerry W. Reese

Jerry Reese received his Bachelor of Science Degree in music education from Indiana State University in 1974 and his Master of Science Degree from ISU in 1979. His teaching positions include Assistant Band Director at Indianapolis Pike High School and Director of Bands at Pioneer High School. In 1978, he joined the Castle Band Program in Newburgh, Indiana.

Mr. Reese is a member of the Bend in the River Brass Band. He has received the Outstanding Young Educator Award for the Chandler Jaycees, the National Band Association Certificate of Merit for Marching Excellence and the Outstanding Educator Award from Pi Lambda Theta at Ball State University. He is a National Registered Music Educator and is listed in Who's Who Among American Teachers. Mr. Reese is a member of IMEA, MENC, WCTA, ISTA, IBA and Phi Beta Mu. He is also a past member of the ISSMA State Board.

Hall of Fame inductee
Darrel L. Horton

Born in West Jefferson, Ohio, Darrel Horton grew up in the shadow of Ohio State University and their band program. He moved to Indianapolis, IN to finish high school and went on to Jordan College of Music / Butler University to earn both a Bachelor and Masters Degree in music. While at Jordan College of Music, he formed a jazz ensemble, which became part of the curriculum upon his graduation.

Mr. Horton taught for 24 years in Indiana as Director of Bands at Wilkinson High School, Indianapolis Northwest High School and Ben Davis High School serving as department chair at the last two schools. Mr. Horton then moved to Plantation, FL where he served 12 more years as Director of Bands at South Plantation High School. His marching bands and jazz ensembles have served as guest bands for numerous clinics. He hosted the first Indiana State Marching Band Contest in 1973. He went to Ben Davis in 1974 to serve as head director of the marching band and became chairman of the band department in 1980. Under his chairmanship, by assigning students to bands in a different manner, all five-concert bands began receiving consistent high marks at concert evaluations. He also converted the nationally known marching band from a parade type competition band to a field show competition band. The band continued its reputation of being one of the nations finest by winning three state championships under his and his staffs' leadership. In 1983 the Marching Giants were the Bands of America Open Division champion and 2nd overall in the BOA Grand Nationals finals.

Mr. Horton also served for many years as the marching instructor for the Hook's All State Marching Band. He served music in Indiana by representing his zone on the ISSMA board, and twice served as the program chair for the IMEA state convention. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Phi Delta Kappa and Phi Beta Mu and belonged to IMEA, MENC and FBA. He retired from teaching in 1997 and currently conducts his church choir and a newly formed church orchestra.

Phi Beta Mu

Phi Beta Mu is the highest honorary international band director's fraternity. It was organized to encourage the building of better bands and the development of better musicians in schools throughout the world and to foster deeper appreciation of good music and more wide spread public interest.

Phi Beta Mu was established as a result of the respect and appreciation its founder, Colonel Earl D. Irons, had for his professional associates, school band directors. He envisioned an organization that would honor outstanding band directors whose dedication and devotion to their profession was paramount, but whose admirable traits and services were not necessarily known nationally. In order to do this, Col. Irons sought to honor deserving individuals on a state level. The fraternity was named Phi Beta Mu with the subtitle National Bandmasters Fraternity, as the name of the organization. Phi Beta Mu was interpreted to mean Life, Love, and Music. The colors chosen to represent the Fraternity were blue and white.

The first official meeting was held at the Rice Hotel in Houston, Texas in February, 1939. The first initiates were R.C. Davidson, Jack H. Mahan, Lyle Skinner, Alfred Wiley, Vergne Adams, and Holmes McNeely. Dr. Cothburn O'Neal was the first individual to be made an Honorary Member in recognition of his work with Col. Irons in developing the Fraternity Constitution and Oath.

Dr. Milburn Carey was initiated in 1942 as a member of Alpha Chapter. In 1944, Dr. Carey chartered Beta Chapter in Enid, Oklahoma. In 1946, Harold L. Walters, who had become an honorary member of Beta Chapter, invited Dr. Carey to charter Gamma Chapter in Indiana.

Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Mu was organized and the charter members initiated on November 27, 1953, at the state convention of the Indiana Music Educators Association. There are presently nearly 100 active members in the state of Indiana.

With an International Office, the Fraternity grew to include additional state chapters and began expanding into foreign countries. New chapters were established chapters in Graz, Austria and Alberta, Canada in 1975, and Japan in 1978. International growth continues today as Phi Beta Mu's ideals are recognized as valid and important to the development of bands throughout the world.

Phi Beta Mu is:

- The only national or international bandmasters' fraternity in the world;
- The only bandmaster-organization to be organized because of one's love and respect for his fellow man;
- The only bandmaster's organization that provides a forum, by oath, for a closer contact between leading members of the profession;
- The one organization that acts as a liaison between all bandmaster organizations; and
- The one organization which, through the American Bandmasters Association, has as its heritage the greatest bandmasters of all time.

INDIANA BANDMASTERS ASSOCIATION

Purpose

1. To stimulate interest in the study of the band and its literature.
2. To develop a desire for good band literature.
3. To encourage good fellowship between the members of the Association.
4. To bring the work of the Association before the Indiana Department of Education and the citizens of the State in order that it shall gain greater recognition and support.
5. To provide educational meetings for band directors to raise the standards of instruction.
6. To secure recognition of School Administrators and Boards of Education to the effect that the band is an integral part of the school curriculum and is entitled to recognition as a curricular subject.
7. To develop a band in each community which shall serve as a vital force in bringing people into closer relationship with the schools of the State.

History

At the Indiana Music Educators Association (IMEA) Convention in 1953, Nilo Hovey, Don Marketto, Ben Niles, and Jim White met to organize an association to promote bands in the State of Indiana. In the fall of 1954 these men along with Carroll Copeland, Hal Meurer and other fine band directors officially founded the Indiana Bandmasters Association.

IBA would initially engage in sponsoring a Marching Band Clinic, an All-State Band, and act in an advisory capacity for IMEA on band activities. The first Marching Band Clinic was organized in the fall of 1956 and continued each year through the summer of 1979.

IBA would sponsor its first All-State Band in 1961 with John Paynter as the guest conductor. The event went to two ensembles, the All-State Band and the All-State Honor Band, in 1980. The first Junior High All-Region Bands were organized in the fall of 1980 at three sites. As interest grew the number of sites was increased to the current twelve. In 1994 the event was renamed the All-Region Honor Band Festival.

The first IBA commission was premiered at the 1988 All-State Honor Band concert with the composer, Robert Jager conducting. The Association premiered the first junior high commission by John O'Reilly at the All-Region Festivals later that fall.

The winter of 1995 saw the first collaboration of the Indiana chapter of the College Band Director's National Association (CBDNA) and IBA to sponsor the Indiana All-Collegiate Honor Band. The group now is formed biannually to perform at the IMEA Convention.

In 1999 IBA established a site on the World Wide Web (www). That year the Association also established All-District Honor Bands for students in grades 9 through 12 performing at six sites in the fall of 2000. The first All-District Band commission, by Robert Sheldon, was premiered in the fall of 2005. IBA now commissions a new work for concert band each school year.

In 2005, the membership of IBA established the "Ray Cramer Scholarship" to be awarded annually to a senior member of the All-State Bands who will pursue a career in music. The 2007 One Thousand Dollar award was presented to Kylie Stultz of Columbus North High School.
