

Aden K. Long, 1909 - 2001

Herald-Times (Bloomington, IN) - Friday, December 28, 2001

Aden K. Long, 92, of Pasadena, Calif., died Dec. 22, 2001, in that city. He was a former Martinsville resident from 1939 to 1949.

He was the son of the Rev. and Mrs. M.G. Long. He married Roberta Travis, who is deceased.

Long was the Martinsville High School Band director while living in this city. He was also band director at Frankfort High School in Frankfort, Ind., and the photo with today's obituary was taken in Frankfort.

Survivors include a son, Robert Long of Pasadena, Calif., a daughter, Martha Kelley of Colorado Springs, Colo.; a sister, Marcile Hanna of Martinsville; four grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. A brother, Newell Long, preceded him in death.

A private family service was conducted in Pasadena.
